this book was written primarily for those young people both boys and girls and their parents and or mentors who for whatever reason believe they have no chance at a successful life this book is the story about a young boy who believed he was in that category while growing up i hope you will continue reading to see how that little boy changed those odds and ultimately did many things that most people cannot even dream of there are many children that are born into poverty and thus have no apparent reason to try to succeed that was the case with mahlon dick palmer dick was the youngest of four boys and was certainly not a welcome addition to the palmer family keep in mind he was born in the midst of the greatest depression the country has ever experienced thus another mouth to feed and clothe was not a welcome addition there was one positive benefit though this child did provide a cheap source of labor as you will discover dick was expected to work twelve to fourteen hour days every day until he left home to join the air force when he was seventeen years old an anthropology of landscape tells the fascinating story of a heathland landscape in south west england and the way different individuals and groups engage with it based on a long term anthropological study the book emphasises four individual themes embodied identities the landscape as a sensuous material form that is acted upon and in turn acts on people the landscape as contested and its relation to emotion the landscape is discussed in relation to these themes as both taskscape and leiscapescape and from the perspective of different user groups first those who manage the landscape and use it for work conservationists environmentalists archaeologists the royal marines and quarrying interests second those who use it in their leisure time cyclists and horse riders model aircraft flyers walkers people who fish there and artists who are inspired by it the book makes an innovative contribution to landscape studies and will appeal to all those interested in nature conservation historic preservation the politics of nature the politics of identity and an anthropology of Britain
